There are schools for Volkspolizei officer candidates at Berlin-Treptow and Berlin-Gruenau. At Berlin-Treptow there are 300 officer candidates from Mecklenburg alone. All candidates are in their second year of service and come from the classes of 1929 and 1930. At Berlin-Treptow, they are taught administration, troop leadership and political work. The course lasts three and a half months. The director of the school, with responsibility for the training, is Maslov (fnu), a Soviet major; the deputy director is Volkspolizei Rat Grueneberg.
